

PART ONE

ROSH PINA HA ARETZ. It is a 6000-year-old secret that will be revealed for the first time because its time has come. "Rosh Pina" means "cornerstone" in Hebrew and comes from Tehillim (Psalms) 118:22. "The Stone that the builders rejected has become the Rosh Pina of the corner." Rosh Pina is also a holiday of Hanukkah when the psalm is sung in the Hallel section of services. There is an agricultural settlement in Israel dating back to the Ottoman empire called by this name, and there are many Jewish congregations named Rosh Pina. However, its popularity as the name is eclipsed by its supernal purpose in the Hebrew Scriptures. The Rosh Pina is much more than a cornerstone in the Torah; it is the reference point or beginning place of creation. Every planet, galaxy, and the Universe has a cornerstone. The Earth has a cornerstone. We mustn't confuse a cornerstone with a capstone or keystone. A keystone is a wedge-shaped stone at the apex of a masonry arch or typically a round-shaped one at the apex of a vault. Its function is not the same as a cornerstone. According to Wikipedia, "a cornerstone (or foundation stone or setting stone) is the first stone set in the construction of a masonry foundation. All other stones will be set in reference to this stone, thus determining the position of the entire structure. Over time, a cornerstone became a ceremonial masonry stone, or replica, set in a prominent location on the outside of a building, with an inscription on the stone indicating the construction dates of the building and the names of the architect, builder, and other significant individuals. The rite of laying a cornerstone is an important cultural component of eastern architecture and metaphorically in sacred architecture generally." The surface of the Earth was constructed using this masonry principle. The Earth has a Rosh Pina, which is visible from space. To be clear, it is both a reference stone and a ceremonial pillar. In fact, it is the most important stone on Earth. Before I reveal the Cornerstone of Earth, let me remind you that there was no vast sea from the beginning of time. This will take a little space to explain. In Beresheeth (Genesis) 1:6-7 and Iyov (Job) 26:9-11, there is a separation of waters in the beginning. The Hebrew word translated as "firmament" in some translations and "expanse" in others is raqiya. It appears nine times throughout the first chapter of Beresheeth (Genesis) (in verses 6-8, 14-18, and 20) and eight more times throughout the rest of the Hebrew Scripture (in Psalms, Ezekiel, and Daniel). According to Genesis, before there was air or land or any form of life, the Earth was a formless mass of primordial water. On the second day of creation, Elohim created the raqiya, placing it in the water's midst separating it into two parts: "the waters above the firmament (raqiya)" and the waters below it. The waters below the raqiya He named "sea" (yam in Hebrew), and the raqiya itself He named shamayim, meaning heaven. This interpretation is confirmed by Mathew Henry and others; "The command of God concerning it: Let there be a firmament, an expansion, so the Hebrew word signifies, like a sheet spread, or a curtain drawn out. This includes all that is visible above the Earth, between it and the third heavens: the air, its higher, middle, and lower regions — the celestial globe, and all the spheres and orbs of light above: it reaches as high as the place where the stars are fixed, for that is called here the firmament of heaven Ge 1:14,15, and as low as the place where the birds fly, for that also is called the firmament of heaven, Ge 1:20." Note he did not say clouds or air, but a sheet spread or curtain is drawn out, i.e., a canopy over the Earth. I understand the many who have betrayed the Scripture and have called this idea "the canopy theory" stating that it is not scientific thus overriding the Scripture. I am here to tell you that they are all wrong, and Elohim will soon prove them liars. There were huge lakes like seas and rivers, but no oceans as we know it before the time of Noah. After the Deluge, the Earth was filled with the water that had once enveloped it as a sheet. There are planets that we have discovered with this phenomenon. Further, there are ruins of cities beneath the Oceans that are still wrapped in a veneer of secrecy because the Powers At Be do not want these things out in light.

PART TWO

I do not see the point of hiding anything now because we are most definitely at the End of the Age, and all these things must be revealed before the End as Yeshua prophesized (Luka (Luke) 8: 16-18). The Scriptures are replete with references to the Rosh Pina, most of which have been interpreted with a messianic savor, which is not my thrust here. My illumination is that the Rosh Pina ha Aretz is a real place and can be referenced in Scripture. Sadly, the only book in the Bible that provides the information to decode the Rosh Pina was removed. I turn to the book of Enoch for the answer. But first, something should be explained about this significant book of the age. Sefer Enoch was once part of the original Canon of the King James Bible and is part of the Orthodox Ethiopian Church Scriptures. The Book of Enoch is mentioned in TaNaK and Brit Chadashah in several places. It was quoted by Clement of Alexandria, one of the most significant of the early church fathers as if it were Scripture. The Book of Jude quotes the Book of Enoch word by word and assumes believers have read it. The later discoveries of the Book among the Dead Sea Scrolls in the Qumran Caves prove beyond doubt its early significance as part of the Hebrew Scriptures. It is omitted from your Bible because it paints a picture of a world where all powers and forces, including religion, are destroyed and the Kingdom of Elohim established on Earth. Let us now look at what this Book tells us about the Rosh Pina and other related information about the area where the stone is located. I quote the relevant passage from the Book and then provide a small commentary as indicated with the Asterix * to explain what is being shown with the verse. The entire commentary is from our book, Ahavas Ha-Emes. I quote from chapters 17, 18, 27, and 67, where the relevant information is contained. *"17.5 And I came to a river of fire, whose fire flows like water, and pours out into the Great Sea, which is towards the west. * 17.6 And I saw all the great rivers, and I reached the Great Darkness, and went where all flesh walks. 17.7 And I saw the Mountains of the Darkness of Winter and the place where the water of all the deeps pours out. * 17.8 And I saw the mouths of all the rivers of the Earth, and the mouth of the deep. * These are multiple descriptions that refer to the place of the second deepest Trench in the world, which stretches for thousands of kilometers between the Islands of Samoa, Tonga, and New Zealand. At the time of Enoch, it was not submerged under water. There were also great plains and cities there. 18.1 And I saw the storehouses of all the winds, and I saw how with them He has adorned all creation, and I saw the foundations of the Earth. * * The foundations of the Earth are located under the Tongan Trench. 18.2 And I saw the cornerstone of the Earth. And I saw the four winds which support the Earth and the sky. * The Cornerstone of the Earth lies underwater at the end of the island of Savaii (Samoa) in a place called Falealupo Asau. The legendary place of Polotu, the home of the underworld, the stone is about 10 km long and can be seen on Google Earth. 18.9 And I saw a burning fire, and what was in all the mountains. * 18.10 And I saw a place there, beyond the great Earth; there the waters gathered together. 18.11 And I saw a deep chasm of the Earth, with pillars of heavenly fire, and I saw among them fiery pillars of Heaven, which were falling, and as regards both height and depth, they were immeasurable. * 18.12 And beyond this chasm, I saw a place, and it had neither the sky above it, nor the foundation of Earth below it; there was no water on it, and no birds, but it was a desert place. 18.13 And a terrible thing I saw there, seven stars, like great burning mountains. 18.14 And like a spirit questioning me, the Angel said: "This is the place of the end of Heaven and Earth; this is the prison for the Stars of Heaven and the Host of Heaven. * 18.14 And like a spirit questioning me, the Angel said: "This is the place of the end of Heaven and Earth; this is the prison for the Stars of Heaven and the Host of Heaven. * * Again, these are the many descriptions of the place of the Trench where the prison is located. 18.15 And the stars which roll over the fire, these are the ones which transgressed the command of the Lord, from the beginning of their rising, because they did not come* out at their proper times. 18.16 And He was angry with them, and bound them until the time of the consummation of their sin, in the Year of Mystery." * * What is the time of consummation of sin? The end of the Age of Torahlessness is 6000 years, where sin must be conquered and ended. The same year is called the Year of Mystery because it is the year when all things will be revealed. The seventh thousand millennia is the 1000-year of rest. Every human being at that time will become entitled to an Earth where there is no more evil and Satan that entices us to sin. All of this will be removed. 27.2 Then Raphael, one of the Holy Angels who was with me, answered me, and said to me: "This accursed valley, * is for those who are cursed forever. Here will be gathered together all who speak with their mouths against the Lord - words that are not fitting and say hard things about His Glory. * Here, they will gather them together, and here will be their place of judgment. * The Watchers, before they were judged, mocked Elohim and Yeshua. They boasted of their strength and abilities. They considered themselves appointed kings and rulers of the Earth. 67.4 And they will shut up those Angels, who showed iniquity, in that burning valley, * which my great-grandfather Enoch had shown to me previously, in the west, near the mountains of gold and silver and iron and soft metal and tin. 67.5 And I saw that valley, in which there was a great disturbance, * and a heaving of the waters. 67.6 And when all this happened, from the fiery molten metal, and the disturbance, which disturbed the waters in that place, a smell of sulphur was produced, and it was associated with those waters. And that valley of the Angels, who led men astray, burns under the ground. * 67.7 And through the valleys of that same area, flow out rivers of fire * where those Angels will be punished, who led astray those on the dry ground. * The prison of the Watchers is underground, where there are volcanic eruptions and seismic activity. This is another description of the area described previously. The area is full of active volcanic activity, even underwater. The entire area around the Trench sits on a basin or ring of fire. The biggest underground volcano explosion recorded in History occurred in this area in 2022." End of commentary. I will explain further what you have just read. This information was hidden from Mankind until the time of the End. If you have Google Earth on your device, go to the Island of Savaii in Samoa, to a place at the tip of the West Coast named Falealupo in Asau. There, you will find just off the coast a long circular pillar lying deep in the ocean, about 10 miles long, that can be seen from outer space. You can't miss it! A picture of the pillar can be seen at the end of this release. It once stood upright, and when the flood occurred, it was knocked down. This is not a naturally occurring structure. That is the Cornerstone of the Earth, as Enoch described in Chapter 18, verse 2. Enoch said he saw the Rosh Pina (Cornerstone) of the Earth, and it was not an insignificant stone because he saw it when he was outside of space. Due to their location, the Samoan Islands are the Cornerstone of the Earth and the Islands slant in the direction of Yerushalem North West. Legends in Samoa's History say that the entrance to the underworld is at Falealupo, the western tip of the island of Savaii. More on this soon. I consider the Book of Enoch to be Scripture. Many verses in this Book describe the area as an active volcanic region near a deep chasm where Elohim imprisoned the Watchers (the Fallen Angels), as described in Chapters 17, 18, 27, and 67. This is the Tongan Trench, the second deepest chasm on Earth, very close to the Samoan Islands, where many active underwater volcanoes exist. Just recently, on 15 January 2022, the Tonga-Hunga-Ha'apai volcano exploded, the largest recorded since the eruption of Krakatoa in 1883 in Indonesia. The whole region is sitting on a prison created for Fallen Angels. The good angels put the cornerstone here in Samoa before Noah's time when there was no sea. The Polynesian Islands are identified in ancient Greek and Roman mythology as Lemuria; it is connected to the legend of Mu. Wikipedia states that "Mu is a lost continent introduced by Augustus Le Plongeon (1825–1908), who identified the "Land of Mu" with Atlantis. The name was subsequently identified with the hypothetical land of Lemuria by James Churchward (1851–1936), who asserted that it was located in the Pacific Ocean before its destruction." The naysayers will bring out their guns, saying these are legends that are unsupported by science. May I remind you that the Bible was once in this category, and over the century, multiple discoveries have continued to confirm and affirm its stories. Now, science is following the Scriptures. Samoa is the Cradle of Polynesia, meaning it is the birthplace of humanity in their legends. This is not a coincidence but a divine revelation that needs the maturity of people who understand the things of the Spirit. The SamoanMythology.net published this information about Pulotu. I quote, "Souls Traveling to Pulotu: While the scholars will search feverishly to uncover the precise origin of the Samoan people, and chart the paths of their migration to Samoa, others unquestionably accept what Brother Fred Henry writes, i.e., there was no migration at all, since "... the old Samoan chiefs and orators firmly believe that the Samoans had always been in Samoa. In proof of it, they will remind us about the myths in accordance with which Samoa and the Samoans were created by Tagaloa, the highest of their gods." (see History, p. 4-5). The original ancestral home was Pulotu (the home of the gods), and the place where they return after their earthly experiences were completed. It is known as the "world of darkness" (lalo fonua). According to the Samoan tradition, Pulotu was situated far, far towards the west, in their original home, while the scholars have evidence that "westernmost" extended as far as Havaiki (Hawaii), and even as far west as the ancient lands of Mesopotamia. Samoan lore places Pulotu at the westernmost point of the westernmost island: the Village of Falealupo in Savai'i. One legend narrates that later seafarers, while on the high sea, constantly met with the souls of those who had already died as they traveled west to Pulotu. Some of these souls were weeping, some laughing and singing, and some even playing different instruments, especially the flute. Once they reached Pulotu, they entered a lake whose water conferred immortality. While we are unconcerned with how Pulotu was located, Samoan lore is settled that one entered the mystical road to Pulotu leading to a pool at Fafa, on the extreme west of Upolu, where the souls needed to enter through the correct entrance, one of which was reserved for the chiefs (Lualotoali'i) and the other for ordinary people (Lualototufanua). An aitu (Spirit), named Leosia, watched to ensure that every soul entered through the correct hole into the abyss...." End of quote. I have been to this area and seen the forces that exist there with my eyes. It is the entry place into the abyss where souls are kept for judgment, and it is here where the wicked will be sentenced when the Kingdom is established. I understand what Enoch saw and why the Pillar is there. Everything in these last days outlined in the Book of Enoch will be figuratively measured from Samoa. The details of which are in our publications. That is why the Pillar is here and why this Ministry is here. The Ha-Melukah Bayit Elohim (Royal House of Elohim) that makes these publications is not a religion or organization. We were established under the mandate of Melech Dawid and the calling of Eliyahu Ha Navi to bring the hidden truths to light now (Beresheeth (Genesis) 49:10; Schmuel Bet (Second Samuel) 7:8-17; Yeshayahu (Isaiah) 9:6-7, 11:1; Yirmeyahu (Jeremiah) 23:5; Tehillim (Psalms) 89:34-37; Ahmos (Amos) 9:11-12). YHWH promised Melech Dawid that He shall create an Everlasting House for him and that House shall come into being before the Messiah comes. For there to be a Kingdom and Messiah, the House of Dawid must first be restored. How is this House different from other ministries and religious institutions? It is straightforward. The Council of Elohim runs the Universe. They are Angelic Beings who head the Universe. They are called the Sons of Elohim (Benai Elohim) and reside in Heavenly Zion. Many Scriptures show this, which we explain in our publications. This Divine Council has decided it is time for them to have a presence and voice on the Ha-Aretz (the Earth). Thus, the Royal House of Elohim and its ministry arm No Mans Zone. But why in a humble place in the South Pacific called Samoa, where are we located? We are literally at the end of the Earth and the farthest from Yerushalem. The last places the Sun sets in the world are Samoa and Hawaii in the Pacific Ocean - A geographical fact. Asau is the last place on Earth to see the Sunset daily, which is why the Pillar is there. Messiah Yeshua prophesized, "And this Besorah of the Malchut (Gospel of the Kingdom) will be proclaimed in all the world as a witness to all the nations, and then the end will come" Mattityahu (Matthew) 24:14; Also, Maaseh Shlichim (Acts) 1:8; Yeshayahu (Isaiah) 11:12. The start of the End begins when the Gospel returns from the place of the Cornerstone. We are the last and furthest place on Earth to receive the Good News of the Kingdom of Elohim, proclaimed on our shores more than 200 years ago. This Ministry will take the Besorah Malchut back to the restored Yerushalem soon. Baruch HaShem! These days in which we live have to do with Yom YHWH, the restoration of Yerushalem, the restoration of the Torah, the Millennial Kingdom (The Shabbat Gadol), the coming of the Mashiach, and much more, which involved millions of people who have heard the call and understand the mandate. The Prophet Malachi further wrote chapter 4, verse 6, "And he (Eilyah) shall turn the lev (heart) of the ahvot (fathers) to the children, and the lev of the children to their ahvot, lest I come and smite the earth with a curse through utter destruction." The mission of the Royal House of Elohim is simple: To RESTORE AND REVIVE Torah and RECOMMISSION Yisra'el. To turn the children's hearts back to their fathers in the faith before it is too late. We must return to the family of Yisra'el and learn the customs, traditions, language, feasts, truths, and beliefs of our ahvot (fathers in the faith). You don't have to go to Israel; you can learn it here on NMZ. We have many resources to help and assist you and a school where you can learn Hebrew for free. Our website is full of teaching videos and articles you can download for free. We also have produced many Hebrew and Christian educational books for sale on Amazon.com. Every one of them is a Masterpiece. Our resources and archives draw upon the work of many rabbis, pastors, and teachers who teach the Torah and Brit Chadashah. Everything we have on our website is the unadulterated and literal truth as the Ruach revealed it to us. It is our goal to make sure you make it home! The Messiah is coming in our time for a Kallah (Bride) without spots and wrinkles (Ephsiyah (Ephesians) 5:27). Halleluyah! We are here to serve you. I am your Eved (Servant) and Kohen (Priest). Let us help you. Let us work together.
