

THE MESSIANIC ERA. I have an important announcement to share, and studying this release will be worth your while. We have entered the Messianic Era. I do not make this announcement lightly. The Messianic Era is a concept found in various religious and spiritual traditions, particularly Judaism, Christianity, and Islam. It refers to a future period of universal peace, justice, and spiritual enlightenment, often associated with the coming of a divinely chosen leader or Messiah. The details of the Messianic Era vary by tradition, but common themes include the resolution of suffering, the establishment of divine law, and the restoration of harmony in the World. As an introduction, below is an overview of the concept understood in different contexts: INTRODUCTION. Judaism. Messianic Figure: The Mashiach (Messiah), a human descendant of King David, will lead the Jewish people and the World into an era of peace and divine service. Characteristics of the Era: Universal Peace: Nations will cease waging war, as symbolized by the prophetic vision of "beating swords into plowshares" (Yeshayahu (Isaiah) 2:4). Restoration of Israel: The Jewish people will return to their homeland, and the Temple in Yerusalem will be rebuilt. Divine Knowledge: The World will be filled with the knowledge of YHWH, and humanity will live in accordance with divine principles. End of Suffering: Poverty, illness, and oppression will be eradicated. Key Belief: The Messianic Era is not the "end of the World" but a perfected state of existence on Earth. Christianity. Messianic Figure: Jesus Christ (Yeshua) is identified as the Messiah. Christians believe His second coming will usher in the Messianic Era, often described as the Millennium or a period of Christ's reign. Characteristics of the Era: Judgment and Redemption: The righteous will be rewarded, and evil will be defeated. New Creation: Some traditions anticipate a "new heaven and a new earth" (Gilyahna (Revelation) 21:1), signifying a renewal of creation. Universal Worship: All people will recognize Jesus as the divine ruler. Key Belief: The Messianic Era includes eternal life for believers, either in a transformed Earth or in a heavenly realm. Islam. Messianic Figures: The Mahdi (guided one) and Isa (Jesus) play central roles in ushering in a period of justice and divine rule. Characteristics of the Era: Defeat of Oppressors: The Mahdi will establish justice by ending tyranny, and Jesus will return to defeat the false Messiah (Dajjal). Global Unity: Humanity will unite in the worship of Allah, and Islam will be universally practiced. Peace and Prosperity: The Earth will experience abundance, and conflicts will cease. Key Belief: The Messianic Era precedes the Day of Judgment and serves as a final period of guidance. General Themes Across Traditions: Universal Peace: War and violence will end, and harmony will prevail. Justice and Equity: Oppression and corruption will be eradicated. Spiritual Enlightenment: Humanity will live in alignment with divine wisdom and purpose. Restoration or Renewal: A return to a state of original purity or the fulfillment of a divine plan for the World. THE ENIGMA OF PRESIDENT TRUMP. We cannot go forward into the Light of consciousness and truth unless we understand the underlying theme of what happened in the last four years of deep darkness. War broke out against humanity in 2020 with the engineered Covid pandemic. Over 50 million people lost their lives, according to some estimates, and still, people are dying from the complications of the jab. Untold millions more were psychologically affected by the lockdowns. Globally, billions of people lost their livelihoods, businesses closed, and people were impoverished. All the while, the billionaires and trillionaires of this World saw a sizable increase in their fortunes and holdings. And we thought this was the normal working of the times. We all ignored the facts. This is how it started. The events we have witnessed in the last four years of the Biden Administration began in 2008 with the global financial crisis. President Obama was elected after that event. Many on the internet said he is the Anti-Christ. Obama is not who you think he is. Many have researched and reported that Obama is a Muslim who masks himself as a Christian. Jews have labeled him as an antisemite who was actively involved in destroying the state of Israel and the man behind the Global Elites (the Cabal) wars to destabilize the World, particularly in the Middle East and Europe.

PART TWO

It is evident that Obama was groomed for his role as President of the United States from 2009 to 2017. Later, he was positioned to work alongside Hillary Clinton within the Deep State, as many podcast hosts have suggested. However, my own observation of Obama reveals a knowledgeable and clever man, unaware that YHWH used him to help usher in the Messianic Era—his most significant legacy. He will be remembered for this. Ironically, Obama played a pivotal role in Donald Trump’s decision to run for president. In 2011, during a dinner, Obama publicly criticized and embarrassed Trump, which reportedly motivated Trump to launch his 2016 campaign. Humanity still seems unaware of the monumental odds Trump faced from the outset. The Democratic Party and the establishment dismissed him as a clown, convinced he couldn’t win. To them, he lacked military, legal, and political experience. In their eyes, he was merely a businessman and entertainer. Worse still, the election odds were stacked against him. He went up against formidable opponents in the primaries, each a seasoned and powerful politician. Trump defeated them all decisively, while the Democrats put forth a candidate they believed was unbeatable. Hillary Clinton, a globally recognized figure, led the Democratic Party with the backing of numerous billionaires. On top of that, they spread rumors claiming Trump would start World War III, was colluding with Russia, and would bankrupt the nation. None of these accusations proved true. Yet, against all odds, Trump emerged victorious. His rise to power was nothing short of a divine miracle. Most people remain unaware of what YHWH accomplished through this man. When Trump won the presidency in 2017, I felt compelled to dig deeper to understand its significance. Why this person? What role could he play that YHWH would choose to use him? I was left to weigh two possibilities. Trump could either be the gilgul (reincarnation) of Eliyahu HaNavi or the incarnate Messiah Ben Yosef. We know he is not Moshiach Ben Dawid, who must descend from the Tribe of Judah and be deeply rooted in Torah. Only one prophetic interpretation makes sense. Trump is Moshiach Ben Yosef, and I will soon provide confirmation of this understanding. I am also still open to the interpretation that he is Eliyahu. To understand how the different roles of these two Messiahs, I will quote from this excellent article Mashiach ben Yosef; “When Jews typically think of “the” Messiah (i.e., ha-mashiach), however, they generally have in mind Mashiach ben David of the tribe of Judah who shall rule in the Messianic age. Mashiach ben Yosef is said to be of the tribe of Ephraim (son of Joseph) and is also sometimes called Mashiach ben Ephraim (Bavli Sukah 52b). Mashiach ben Yosef will come first, before the advent of Mashiach ben David, to prepare the World for the coming of the kingdom of the LORD. He will fight God's wars (against "Edom," collectively understood as the enemies of Israel) in a time preceding the fulfillment of the Messianic Kingdom (this is sometimes referred to as Ikvot Mashiach, the "footsteps of the Messiah"). The Rabbis derive this understanding of Mashiach ben Yosef from their exegesis of Obadiah1:18: "The house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau stubble; they shall burn them and consume them, and there shall be no survivor for the house of Esau, for the LORD has spoken." Moreover, they understand the confrontation between the "house" of Joseph and the "house" of Esau to be prefigured in the birth of Joseph himself, where Rachel indicated that God would "add a son" (i.e., ben acher:) who would be anointed for battle in the End of Days (midrash on Gen. 30:24). However, Mashiach ben Yosef will be killed during the war against evil, as described in the prophecy of Zechariah, who says of this tragedy that "they shall mourn him as one mourns for an only child" (Zech. 12:10), Bavli Sukkah 52a). His death would be followed by a period of great calamities and tribulations for Israel, and shortly after this Mashiach ben David would appear to avenge his death and inaugurate the Messianic kingdom on earth (yemot hamashiach). Fascinatingly, Rabbi Saadiah Gaon (among other sages) has said that the Jewish people may be redeemed immediately if they simply repent - even before the appearance of Mashiach ben David.

But if they do not repent, chevlei Mashiach (great Tribulation) will come upon them: "The Holy One, blessed be He, will set up a ruler over them, whose decrees shall be as cruel as Haman's, thus causing Israel to repent, and thereby bringing them back to the right path"(Sanhedrin 97b). As for Rambam's view of Mashiach ben David (i.e., the traditional Jewish view), it is said that Messiah ben Yosef: Joseph as a Type of Messiah Bet Hamikdash (Temple), regather the exiles of Israel, cause all goyim (nations) of the earth to be subjected (i.e., "united in peace"), put an end to sin and evil, raise the dead (techiyat hametim), and set up a blissful utopia headquartered in Jerusalem. In that day, 'the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea' (Habakkuk 2:14)." https://www.hebrew4christians.com/Articles/Mashiach_ben_Yosef). I must point out that the majority of Christendom consider Yeshua to be both Mashiach Ben Yosef (the suffering servant -at His first coming) and Mashiach Ben David (the reigning King - at His second coming) (see Yeshayahu (Isaiah) 52:13-15; 53:12, Tehillim (Psalm) 22). He is also the Anointed Prophet, Priest, and King, as foreshadowed by other meshichim in the TaNaK. I agree. We are at the close of one age and the dawn of the final Millennium before we return home, a time when the Messianic Era will take a more definitive shape toward its ultimate fulfillment. Moshiach Ben Yosef and Moshiach Ben Dawid must be distinct individuals, each playing a foundational role in this divine plan. According to the messianic program, the Messiah, son of Joseph, is destined to precede the Messiah, son of David. In some sources, the Messiah, son of Joseph, is referred to as "The First Redeemer," while the Messiah, son of David, is called "The Second Redeemer." The Messiah, son of Joseph, will lead the Lost Ten Tribes and will descend from Joseph. In this sense, he represents both Joseph and the collective body of the Lost Ten Tribes. MOSHIACH BEN YOSEF. Let's get deeper into who Messiah, the son of Joseph, is. I quote from this article the task of Moshiach ben Joseph, "The traditional Aramaic Translation of the Prophets (Targum Yehonathan on Exodus 40:11) says the Messiah son of Joseph is descended from Joshua the son of Nun from the Tribe of Ephraim. Other sources say that the Messiah, son of Joseph, is a descendant of Jeroboam, the son of Nebath (Zohar Chadash, Balak 56b). Jeroboam had led the northern Ten Tribes when they rebelled against the House of David, broke away, and formed their own kingdom of Israel (1-Kings chapter 12). All the Israelites in the separate kingdom of Israel were later exiled by the Assyrians and became the Lost Ten Tribes of Israel. The Messiah, son of Joseph, who is the descendant of Jeroboam will bring about the re-unification of the Lost Ten Tribes (Joseph) with Judah. He will, therefore, rectify the sin of his ancestor by re-uniting with Judah. The book "Kol HaTor," i.e., "The Voice of the Turtledove" (a reference to Song of Songs 2:12), was written by Rabbi Hillel Rivlin (1758-1833) of Shklov, a disciple of the Vilna Gaon (1720-1797). It deals with the future Redemption and the task of the Messiah, son of Joseph, i.e., Moshiach ben Yoseph. This Messiah is an anointed leader who precedes the Messiah, son of David, and prepares the way for him. The Messiah, son of Joseph, is associated with the Lost Ten tribes (as explained by the Malbim in Ezekiel 37 and articles on this matter). This book is a collection of the sayings of a great and famous Rabbi (Eliyahu of Vilna) and his followers in the eighteenth century. The work deals with the Messiah, the son of Joseph. Rabbi Eliyahu of Vilna is considered to have been one of the greatest Rabbis of all time. The ideas in this book, "Kol HaTor," are all based on Biblical or related sources. By noting what the Messiah, son of Joseph, is expected to do, we may also learn who the Lost Ten Tribes really are and what is expected of them in turn. Similar to Cyrus, king of Persia, Kol HaTor says (1.6.1). The Messiah, son of Joseph, is similar to Cyrus, the Persian Monarch who encouraged the Jews to return from the Babylonian Exile and rebuild the Temple. Cyrus, the King of Persia, in some respects, may be considered a forerunner (or prototype) of the Messiah, son of Joseph. Verses associated with Cyrus (Isaiah 42) are actually, to a degree, applicable to the Messiah, son of Joseph. The Messiah, son of Joseph, will be revealed little by little. The Messiah son of Joseph in some sources, is referred to as the “Messiah son (descendant) of Ephraim.” Ingathers the Exiles. The Messiah, son of Joseph, is associated with the saving of lives and the rescue of Israelites, and in this, he is assisted by Judah and by the Messiah, son of David. The Messiah, son of Joseph, is connected with the ingathering of the exiles. America and Britain both, in their own way in the past, helped the ingathering of the exiles of Judah to the Land of Israel. Ingathers the Exiles “Kol HaTor” says (2.40), “His (i.e., Joseph’s) bow abode in strength” (Genesis 49:24). This should be an important principle for us. We have to stand obstinately strong in the holy work of gathering in the exiles, which is the task of the first redeemer (i.e., of the Messiah, son of Joseph).” <https://www.britam.org/task.html>. Interestingly, no Rabbi or Prophet has declared Trump to be any of the above Messiahs yet, but they know this man is not your normally elected president. The best they are prepared to admit is that he is a “messianic figure” of the type of Essau and Issac. The divine oracle specifies that the older of the twins (Esau) will serve the younger (Beresheeth (Genesis) 25:23) because, in their minds, Trump cannot be their Messiah because he is a goy (gentile). This oracle reflects later conflicts between the descendants of Esau (Edom) and Jacob (Yisra’el). In Jewish analogy, Trump is Essau, and Isaac is the Jewish people. Thus, the older brother's actions are directly responsible for the elevation of the younger brother. We must consider carefully what has happened before our eyes. Let us return to Trump. THE GENTILE MESSIAH. Who is Trump? Trump is the gilgul of Moshiach Ben Yosef, hailing from the Tribe of Manasseh, the firstborn of Yosef, who received the double portion. Together, Manasseh and Ephraim form the Lost Tribes of Yisra’el, often referred to in Scripture as the tribe of Ephraim or simply Yisra’el. Numerous publications explore the tribal origins of the United States, suggesting its connection to Manasseh and Ephraim (Joseph). While space does not allow for a full exploration of this topic here, a concise article titled Why America is Manasseh provides an insightful overview, which I believe is worth exploring. I quote, “The early settlers of the USA came mostly from specific areas in Britain and Europe where Tribal Names and other factors indicate origin from clans of Manasseh. Jacob blessed Joseph concerning his two sons, Ephraim and Manasseh. Rabbinical analysis of these blessings showed that Ephraim was to become a great and numerous nation and group of nations before the emergence of Manasseh in the full sense. Manasseh was to become the Worldwide pre-eminent power after the heyday of Ephraim. Historically, Ephraim dominated the British Isles. Britain and the British Empire achieved the peak of their power and influence before the USA ascended to its present eminence. The very name “Manasseh” in Hebrew connotes Responsible Representation, which is a form of government that was the reason the USA came into being. America is named after Amerigo Vespucci, who in turn was named after a Jewish noble named Americo or Americus, which name is a Medieval Latinized version of the Hebrew Machir or “HaMacheiri,” meaning “belonging to Machir.” Machir was the firstborn son of Manasseh. The name Machir in Hebrew connotes Free Enterprise and Capitalism. This is a fundamental concomitant principle for the American mode of existence. “Yank” is a nickname for American. It is short for Jack or Jacob i.e., Israel. It also reflects the direct contact between Jacob and Manassaeh as opposed to that between Joseph and Ephraim. In Biblical Times, monarchs of the northern Kingdom of Israel appointed from Manasseh or associated with Manasseh (as distinct from Ephraim) were more like Constitutional Presidents than absolute rulers. Their terms of office were similar to those of US Presidents today.” <https://www.britam.org/USAManasseh.html>. Many rabbis have noted that the Gematria of Donald Trump is 424, identical to the Gematria of Moshiach Ben Dawid. This does not imply he is Messiah, the son of David, but it suggests he is a non-Jew playing a significant role in the messianic process. During Trump’s first term as president, he achieved unprecedented milestones. He took bold steps to reform America, confront the Democratic Party, and drive economic prosperity, breaking numerous records. He directly challenged the United Nations, pressured NATO, withdrew America from WHO, and established diplomatic ties that transformed global politics. He brokered peace with Russia, befriended leaders often labeled as dictators, defeated ISIS and other Islamic terror groups, recognized Jerusalem as Israel's capital, and facilitated alliances between Israel and the Arab World. His achievements warranted recognition, perhaps even the Nobel Peace Prize. These accomplishments pointed to a messianic calling on his life. Trump, known to hail from the Tribe of Manasseh, demonstrated deep devotion to Elohim. Despite clear signs, no rabbi or prophet is prepared to declared him Moshiach Ben Yosef. When Trump lost his second term, it was not due to a lack of public support—he won by a resounding majority—but because it was not YHWH's will for him to continue. YHWH had another plan, as the World was not yet spiritually prepared for the revelation of Moshiach Ben Yosef. The consciousness of the age had not reached the threshold necessary for this messianic unfolding—a critical point to understand. In His divine and perfect plan, YHWH allowed haSatan one final, massive assault on humanity to bring everything to a climactic conclusion—The term of Biden. This epic struggle between good and evil mirrors the events in Mitzrayim, where Pharaoh unleashed his worst against Yisra'el and was ultimately defeated. Similarly, YHWH permitted evil to run rampant across the World, implementing every conceivable plan to destroy humanity. Many of us struggled to comprehend the events unfolding, watching in awe as haSatan openly revealed his agendas. This marked the ultimate confrontation between good and evil, culminating in 6,000 years of darkness reigning over the Earth. The purpose of this divine plan was threefold: 1. Expose Hidden Evil: YHWH allowed the forces of darkness to emerge fully, revealing their agendas and operations. Organizations like the WEF, UN, and WHO unveiled plans that threatened everyone, from children to the elderly, showing that no one was safe. 2. Highlight Environmental Impact: The lockdowns demonstrated nature's resilience and capacity for healing, showcasing the damage inflicted on our planet and inspiring hope for its recovery. 3. Prepare President Trump for His Next Term: This period served to test Trump and unveil his future messianic team. Figures like Elon Musk, Vivek Ramaswamy, Susie Wiles, Robert F. Kennedy Jr., and Tulsi Gabbard—morally upright individuals opposed to corruption—emerged as key allies. Together, they share a commitment to democracy, detest corruption, and seek the permanent dismantling of the Deep State. Beneath the surface lies a profound rot that this administration will confront head-on: THE GLOBAL ROT. 1. Human Trafficking: A crisis of unprecedented scale, enslaving countless lives. 2. Widespread Enslavement: Billions suffering physical, social, financial, and economic oppression. 3. Innocent Lives Lost: The murder of millions of children and other innocents. 4. Drug Cartels: Dominating nations and poisoning the World with their products. 5. Global Conflict: The Cabal pushing the planet toward war to reduce the population to their desired level. 6. Rigged Elections: Systematic manipulation of democracy and the funding of corrupt officials. 7. Resource Hoarding: The one percent monopolizing global resources and wealth. 8. Health Destruction: Pharmaceutical and food industries spreading sickness. 9. Freedom Erosion: Systematic dismantling of liberties granted by Elohim, placing power in the hands of elites. 10. Environmental Devastation: Mass slaughter of animals and degradation of the Earth. These represent just a fraction of the evil and destruction perpetrated by these forces. To believe for a moment that this is the World Elohim desires for His children—or the legacy our forefathers envisioned—is to embrace a mindset ripe for destruction. Change is coming, and it is essential to recognize the reality before us as we prepare for the restoration of justice and righteousness. THE GENTILE KING. I want to address the role of President Biden in these tumultuous times. It is widely acknowledged within political circles in America that Biden did not truly govern the nation during his term. Instead, his presidency effectively served as Obama's third term, with Biden acting as a proxy to complete the globalist mandate left unfinished during Obama’s time in office. This agenda aligned closely with the objectives of the World Economic Forum and the United Nations. Initially, I struggled to grasp the political significance of the COVID-19 pandemic. While I recognized it as divine judgment for humanity’s mistreatment of the animal world—a truth I wrote extensively about—I now understand it served a greater purpose. Biden and Harris were brought into power to preside over this pandemic, functioning as instruments of judgment on humanity and, ultimately, as catalysts to pave the way for President Trump’s return. Under their leadership, the United States faced unprecedented destruction. Their policies—ranging from open borders to economic destabilization, social upheaval, and diplomacy that edged the World toward kinetic World War III—caused immense harm. Millions died due to their administration’s actions. However, none of this occurred outside the Creator’s will, for such authority cannot bypass the heavenly order unless granted from above. Biden, perhaps sincerely, believed he was fulfilling Elohim’s will. Yet, future generations will likely view his administration as “the arm of YHWH,” executing judgment upon America for its sins, which are also the sins of humanity. The Democratic Party unleashed chaos upon America. Their pandemic strategy, economic policies, and relentless opposition to Trump revealed a larger, darker agenda. Trump, meanwhile, endured unparalleled persecution as no other American president had before. His trials during his third presidential campaign defy belief and testify to the sustaining power of YHWH. Here’s a brief summary of what Trump faced: 1. The Democratic Party attempted to impeach him and link him to international espionage. 2. They brought 91 felony charges against him in an effort to imprison him. 3. They reduced his security, exposing him to potential attacks. 4. They allegedly attempted to assassinate him twice, if not more. 5. They sought to bankrupt him, ruin his family, and tarnish his legacy. These attacks extended beyond Trump to anyone who stood for righteousness, including figures like Robert F. Kennedy Jr. Anyone aligned with justice became a target for relentless persecution. This was no ordinary political contest between Democrats and Republicans or simply a clash between progressives and conservatives. Over the past four years, what unfolded was a cosmic battle between good and evil, preparing the stage for the arrival of Moshiach Ben Yosef. To fulfill this purpose, YHWH granted President Biden unprecedented power and authority—akin to what was given to Pharaoh in Egypt or King Nebuchadnezzar of Babylon. Biden was allowed to enact policies that resulted in the deaths of millions, including the righteous of all nations, and to inflict profound damage upon both America and Israel. Few figures in history have been given such dominion. This authority is not given lightly; it is divinely ordained, carrying immense judgment and responsibility. Ultimately, Biden will be held accountable before YHWH for the lives lost under his administration. This divine narrative underscores the weight and gravity of the role he played in this pivotal chapter of human history. THE MESSIANIC MANDATE. While I am here, let me clarify: the dominion granted to President Trump is for good, not evil. Trump’s leadership will be characterized by tremendous good and guided by his messianic calling. I feel compelled to reveal what is happening behind the scenes so you can better understand the times we are living in and shift your focus from solely looking to the heavens for the Messiah. I have no intention of rebuffing your beliefs, but it is time for us to put our feet on the ground. The Messianic process has already begun. YHWH, in His sovereignty, does whatever is necessary to fulfill the redemption of humanity, and Trump is an integral part of that divine plan. The ultimate goal of Heaven’s government is to restore angelic humanity’s right to roam the universe again because Earth is not our final home. I have said before: we are not from here. Therefore, while we cannot condemn President Biden for the events of his administration, I pray that Trump realizes this truth and allows Biden to live out his remaining days in peace. Even during Biden’s term, YHWH’s protection was evident. It can be argued that Biden was never medically fit for office.

His cognitive decline became increasingly apparent soon after he took office. Those who backed him exploited his condition to their nefarious advantage. Following the presidential debates of 2024, the World was shocked at the severity of Biden's mental state, finally realizing he was not truly in charge. Yet, this was no secret in Washington or the White House. Everyone in power knew his condition. However, righteous voices in Congress and the Senate could not expose the truth when the media was under the Deep State's control. A massive cover-up campaign was orchestrated by the most powerful institutions in the US—NSA, CIA, FBI, DOJ, and Secret Service—alongside powerful services in other nations. News reporters and show hosts were tightly controlled and threatened into compliance. This campaign unleashed global confusion, lies, and manipulation. The same forces destabilizing America replicated their tactics globally. This was never a localized plan; it was a Worldwide agenda. No nation, including Russia and China, was immune. In their diabolical plan, international treaties and legislation would flush out and silence Jews, Messianics, Christians, and Muslims everywhere. Many people were murdered for exposing their plans. Had the Democratic Party won the 2024 US presidential election, it would have triggered a World war, killing billions of people. In my release, Can We Change? I cautioned the World about the potential consequences of the Democratic side winning. As far as Heaven was concerned, the agenda of the Cabal is not how it starts or ends. "Precious in the sight of YHWH is the death of His saints" (Psalms 116:15). The blood of the righteous cried out, as it always does, and justice was inevitable. The Cabal's plans, like those of Hitler's Third Reich and Stalin's communist army, were doomed to fail. Why, you may ask, do some people perpetually choose evil despite the lessons of history? HaSatan's ultimate goal has always been to undo the atonement granted by our Creator through Yisra'el, the agent of salvation, by simply killing them all. As we stand at the dawn of the Messianic Era, Light will conquer the darkness, and everything will change for the better. However, be warned: while the Cabal has retreated into the shadows, their agendas still course through the World's political, economic, financial, and social systems. Everything must be dismantled and rebuilt on a new foundation of justice, truth, and righteousness. One irreversible consequence is the damage inflicted on the Democratic Party. They must strip away the old leadership and start afresh to restore America's trust. America benefits from strong opposition, and the Democratic Party must return to its founding roots. That said, we cannot ignore the good they have done for the nation and the World. The American people's disillusionment was evident in the landslide results of the November 2024 presidential elections. Trump won the electoral and popular votes and secured the Senate, Congress, and seven critical swing states. He crushed the opposition. I do not foresee a repeat of the chaos of these past four years until the close of the Messianic Era, when a final assault on humanity will occur. The Republican Party has learned its lesson and will work to entrench democratic principles, ensuring righteous leaders are elected, and the Cabal cannot install corrupt officials. Globally, we can expect unprecedented movements demanding accountability from leaders and public servants. America will take a leading role, as this is its divine calling. I foresee the fall of many Cabal-backed leaders across the globe, with righteous servants stepping into positions of power. China, Russia, and BRICS will grow in influence, serving as a counterbalance to the West. America may eventually join BRICS to foster greater global economic, social, and political unity. As mentioned in another release, Elon Musk will rise to international prominence, surpassing his counterparts in many business sectors. Election rules in America may even change, allowing him to run for president in future elections. I want to end with a remarkable admission from President Trump. When asked during a public briefing why he believed God saved him, his answer was deeply messianic: "Maybe God saved me to save the World." He also revealed in an interview with Dr. Phil that the odds of him surviving his assassination attempt in Sept 15 2024 were 20 million to one. Hallel-Yah.
