

THE TRUE PURPOSE OF WAR! Wars and battles are described by the prophets as a characteristic of the time of the end. Within the last fourteen years, we have had 56 wars/civil wars/skirmishes/rebellions/conflicts killing millions of people. Have a look at Wikipedia under the title of "War." What does this tell us? War must be good business, or there is something else the prophets have not told us why there are so many. We know a handful of powerful corporations and individuals have become more prosperous through wars while billions of people have been impoverished. The real mystery is why. I want to share a secret with you that very few people understand. War has a hidden purpose that is fulfilled by the next generation. Here it is: The wealth and power of the wicked is being transferred into the hands of the righteous, and it will happen within two generations before the end. How? Bear with me as I unfold the mystery. Many times, amongst many civilizations, there were decrees by unrighteous kings and even queens to kill the firstborn of their generation. Why? We are told it was retribution or justification for their fathers' actions. Really! They did it because the wicked of that generation knew the laws of reincarnation or what I like to call regeneration. We don't know them because we are deceived. The wicked knew that because of their atrocities against the righteous, they would be disqualified from ruling again when they were reborn. Therefore, they set out to destroy the next generation to terminate the process and have them restored. Instead, the opposite occurred; the irreversible and universal laws of karma kicked in and sent them into birth lines of poverty and death despite their divine calling to rule because of their crimes. On the other hand, the righteous are reborn as their sons and daughters, inheriting their fortunes and power. That is why the wicked of many civilizations murdered their own sons and daughters. The truth is no one gets away with anything evil; you will be visited with the consequences, i.e., payment or cost in the next life. Why do you think the wicked of this generation spend hundreds of billions of dollars to extend their lives or reign because they have this eerie feeling that justice awaits them and equalization will come in the next generation? Death has been programmed into all DNA and the environment. Mortality and aging are part of living a biological existence, but they are not our fate because we are not animals. The truth is we don't die; we were created to live forever because we are angels having a mortal experience. No one has control over where they will be sent in their next cycle. Trust me, Elohim or a panel of judges do not determine placement. Many hidden laws determine this process effortlessly. I don't have the space here to teach you these laws, but they are in our book Regeneration. I can tell you here that a generation of sons and daughters has already inherited the wealth and power of the wicked who feel out of place, and many have rebelled. And more generations are on the way. These beautiful but lost persons have not yet woken up to their real identity because they require an enlightenment process that no guru or guide can provide. If you feel like one of them, then understand you have been placed there for Elohim's purpose because of the crimes of a previous generation in your present line. Your skin color, gifts, abilities, and education do not explain why you were selected. The real purpose of your journey into wealth and power is because of the Kingdom of Elohim. Nothing else on this Earth or this time matters or compares with the Kingdom. In the not-so-distant past, Africa was robbed of her people to become slaves of the West. Likewise, the American Indians were dispossessed of their lands because of colonization. Many religious minorities and people were murdered as well. The list of injustices all over the world can fill many books, but it is not essential here. The enslaved, dispossessed, and murdered now sit in prominent positions of power and wealth in society all over the world, and many are not brown or black. That is why war does not fix anything except to tilt the balance in the favor of the righteous and the Kingdom. If only the wicked knew this, they may stop the madness. Finding out who you are and where you came from is possible and will answer many questions people have. This is the ominous task of Eliyahu and the Messiah that is linked to the Kingdom of Elohim where everything must climax.
